Help for today.
Hope for tomorrow.

A loving, romance-filled marriage ... a healthy, happy family ... most people would say they want these things more than anything else! Yet, in today's culture, they seem to be the hardest to find, and certainly, to keep.

People are desperately seeking answers to questions like: How can I make my marriage last? How can I communicate with my spouse? How can we raise godly children in an ungodly world?

FamilyLife is committed to helping you learn biblical principles that will provide answers to these questions and help you build the type of family that you long for. In everything we do at FamilyLife—our getaways and events, national radio broadcasts, home Bible studies, website, books and other materials—we offer practical, biblical principles for improving your relationship with God, with your spouse and with your children.

Would you prayerfully consider partnering with Eric and Deb Riedy as they faithfully minister through FamilyLife? We are continuing to develop new and creative ways to help strengthen marriages and families like yours, building a legacy of Christ-centered love for generations to come, and fulfilling our Savior's Great Commission.

Competition

These are serious times. There is tremendous competition for the hearts and minds of families. The most important battle being fought today in America is for the souls of its men, women and children. Societies are destroyed one family at a time and rebuilt the same way.

“The strength of a nation lies in the homes of its people.”

-Attributed to Abraham Lincoln

Just look at the statistics: More than 50 percent of marriages end in divorce. Well over half of teenage pregnancies come from broken homes. Violent teen behavior threatens schools. Today’s media greatly influences the average family.

At FamilyLife® our purpose is to glorify God, make Christ known and be used by Him to give families help for today and hope for tomorrow. We firmly believe that bringing God’s timeless principles into marriage and family relationships is essential to winning the battle for the family and for our nation.

Help and Hope

In the face of these intense cultural pressures, there is good news. As more and more people experience failure and despair in their relationships, their hearts are turning to the God who can give them hope.

FamilyLife is dedicated to helping husbands and wives see God’s plan for marriage and the family. The difficult issues facing families today creates a need for Christians to be involved.

In response to this need, FamilyLife was established in 1976 to provide marriages with help and hope through Christ.

Core Message

We exist so that God can work in and through us to help people understand, experience and proclaim God’s truth for marriage and family.

Our Invitation

We invite others to partner with us to reach people for Christ.

FamilyLife/Cru has no central funds for paying salaries and ministry expenses.

Like many other mission organizations, FamilyLife/Cru depends upon the consistent financial support of concerned individuals and churches. These contributions are used to fund the ministries of our staff members.

We need a team of partners who will give $100 monthly or some other amount to support our ministry.

With our finances in place, we can turn our full attention to reaching people for Christ.

Our Commitment to you is

- to work diligently to touch the lives of people for Jesus Christ,
- to regularly let you know how God is blessing the ministry, and
- to share prayer concerns with one another.

Eric and Deb attended a 'Weekend to Remember' in 1992, the first year of our marriage. This began years of FamilyLife influence in our marriage and parenting.

In the beginning of 2006 we began feeling God was calling us to something different. Not knowing what that might be, we began praying that God would stretch us. As we followed the steps God laid before us, we realized that stretch would take us further than we ever thought, into full time ministry with FamilyLife!

Your partnership can make a difference in reaching people for Christ.

Would you make a monthly commitment to impact marriages and families with the gospel?
